5. Please answer the following questions, using no more than 500 words in total. Answer the questions on a separate sheet of paper, and include your full name. Submit the typed essay, together with a signed copy of this page, to the MMH Program Office by post, fax or e-mail.

- a) Describe in your own words, how do you envisage contributing to the future development of your country/region after graduation?
- b) Why do you feel an MMH degree is relevant to your particular career needs?

6. Provide a concise but accurate description of your financial circumstances as well as a cash flow forecast for the year e.g. details of income (such as your income, investment income, savings, property rentals, etc) set against details of expenditure (such as local outgoings, MMH fees, rent living expenses). How do you expect to finance your studies if you do not obtain a scholarship or financial aid from HYK? Why HYK should consider you for a need-based scholarship?

7. Submit supporting documents as listed:

- I. Proof of salary (latest salary slip or a letter from your employer);
- II. Latest tax returns (most recent fiscal year). For some countries where the tax is included in the salary slips, no additional documentation is required;
- III. Latest bank statements (last three months).
- IV. Resume

I certify that the above information as well as my application information to the Cornell-Nanyang Master of Management in Hospitality (MMH) program is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I also realize that submitting false information, as well as not notifying the Cornell-Nanyang Institute of Hospitality Management of any other financial awards that I may be receiving, constitutes fraud and may result in the cancellation of my application for the HYK Scholarship.
