

Timothy J. Dick is a senior vice president with TriMont Real Estate Advisors, based in Atlanta. Mr. Dick has more than 22 years of experience in real estate consulting, valuation, asset management, and investment analysis for a variety of commercial property types. These activities have been conducted on behalf of major financial institutions, government agencies, large corporations, developers, individual investors, and legal firms. Mr. Dick holds the designation as Member of the Appraisal Institute.

Mr. Dick is responsible for the asset management of a portfolio of hospitality properties located throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Europe, and the Caribbean that includes over 140 assets totaling over $3 billion in market value. The portfolio is comprised of equity investments, performing loans, and real estate owned assets in primary and secondary markets.

Prior to joining TriMont in March 2003, Mr. Dick was director of asset management at Hardin Capital LLC and was also a manager with the Global Hospitality and Leisure Consulting Group and the Real Estate Advisory Services Group of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP in the Atlanta office.

Mr. Dick has a Masters of Professional Studies from the School of Hotel Administration, where he is a frequent guest lecturer and is past president of the Cornell Hotel Society. Mr. Dick is a member of the Counselors of Real Estate, the Hotel Asset Managers Association (HAMA), and the International Society of Hospitality Consultants (ISHC).

The MMH Outstanding Alumnus of the Year award recognizes an MMH/MPS alumna/alumnus who demonstrates exceptional career progression and continued service to the School of Hotel Administration and its students. Please join us in congratulating Tim on winning this award.