Hotel School - Career Management

- On-Campus Recruiting Policies

Review the guidelines for accepting job offers and be familiar with the 2007-2008 Policies for Students. Be familiar with the policy concerning interviews and cancellation of interviews as they need to be made within the policy guidelines.

- Interview Location

Please check the schedule sheets that will be posted, the day of the interview, on the bulletin board across the hall from 180 Statler Hall (Hotel School Student Services Office).

Schedule sheet will indicate the location of the interview room, instructions as to where to wait for that interview, and the recruiter(s) who will be conducting the interview.

Cornell Career Services Events

- Strategies for Finding an International Internship

Students who have recently returned from overseas internships will talk about their experiences and share the details of the internship hunt: when to begin looking, where to look, what the resources are, what skills are required, how to get a work permit and more. They will also share experiences on cultural adjustments and challenges for students working internationally. All students welcome.

Wednesday, November 14, 2007, 5-6pm, Barnes Hall Auditorium

- Goldman, Sachs & Co. Women in Leadership Seminar

You are cordially invited to attend this seminar featuring Laura Liswood, a Senior Advisor to Goldman Sachs. Laura will talk about her research focusing on women leaders around the world. Her career includes cofounding the Council of Women World Leaders, which has allowed her to interview virtually every female head of state in the world. There will be a networking reception immediately following the presentation. This event is open to all Cornell undergraduate and MBA women. Please register online at gs.com/careers/campusevents.

Wednesday, November 14, 2007, 7-8:30pm, Statler Hotel Amphitheatre

- Cornell Extern Program

There are still opportunities available to get an insider's view of a career field by shadowing Cornellians in their workplaces for a day to a week during January break (January 2-18). There are 248 Extern Sponsors still available, many in the fields of Hospitality, Human Resources, Marketing & Sales, and Real Estate Management & Development. Friday, November 9th, Noon-7pm is the only sign-up day.
